

Ginger A. Kenneke

Ms. Kenneke is the caregiver for a man who suffered a traumatic brain injury and requires long term support to remain in the community. Ms. Kenneke works in the area of personal assistance and is involved in brain injury support groups.

Carol Ludwig

A large black rectangular redaction box covers the text below the name 'Carol Ludwig'.

Ms. Ludwig is a consumer of mental health services and has received same for many years. Ms. Ludwig is a professional social worker and has been employed in both mental health and AODA settings. She recently attended an all-day conference on Wisconsin's community-based long-term care programs.

Janet Alberti

Ms. Alberti's mother lives with her and is a client of the COP long term support program. Ms. Alberti's expertise in the areas of employment, housing, health and health related problems has come from work experience at the Milwaukee Urban League (Seniors in Community Service) and the Social Development Commission (Senior Companion Program) and from personal experiences involving herself, her parents and her neighborhood.

Bill Egan

A large black rectangular redaction box covers the area below the name "Bill Egan".

Mr. Egan is a physically challenged consumer of long term support services. As a social worker, he provided case management to clients of the Village Church Adult Day Care Center, Inc. and served as the agency's Director for 11 years. He was the chairperson of the Milwaukee County COP Advisory Committee from 1986-1989.

Josephine Henderson

Ms. Henderson is a service provider. She is the Executive Director of the Daughters of Luke Ltd. (D.O.L.L.) - Homemaking Services for the Elderly, an agency which she founded in 1977 under the umbrella of Interfaith Program for the Elderly but which is now freestanding.

Patsy Delgado

A large black rectangular redaction box covers the contact information, including a phone number and an email address.

Ms. Delgado has been active in the aging network for many years. She currently serves as an Associate Director of the Indian Council of the Elderly. Her prior experience includes her work at a Milwaukee County Elderly Nutrition Program site and as Director of the near Southside Interfaith Program for Older Adults.