

Richard C. Wegner

Richard Wegner has served in a variety of executive and financial management positions in Wisconsin State government under both Democrat and Republican administrations. He has held positions in the Department of Administration, the Department of Transportation, the Department of Workforce Development, the Department of Industry, Labor and Human Relations and the Department of Justice.

Mr. Wegner has served as the Deputy Secretary and the Acting Secretary of the Department of Workforce Development. He was a Special Assistant to the President of the University of Wisconsin System for Economic Development and most recently served on Governor-Elect James Doyle's Transition Committee as Chairman for Economic Development.

In addition, Mr. Wegner possesses substantial private sector experience having been CEO or managing partner of two cable television companies, a real estate development and property management company, a publishing company and a management consulting company.

He has served as a member, and chairman of a Meriter Hospital Board in Madison, Wisconsin, a member of the University of Wisconsin Arboretum Board and Walden Homes, a low cost housing non-profit corporation board.

Mr. Wegner holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from The University of Wisconsin-Madison, and a Master of Arts Degree from The Robert M. La Follette School of Public Affairs on The University of Wisconsin- Madison Campus