

The Future of G.A.M.P.

August 25, 2004

Cuts spark crisis in mental health Experts see treatment void, delays

By MEG KISSINGER

mkissinger@journalsentinel.com

Last Updated: Dec. 7, 2003

Community is failing mentally ill, panel says Hospitals, government and police among those called upon for reform

By MEG KISSINGER

mkissinger@journalsentinel.com

Posted: Aug. 22, 2004

Hospital's moves stir debate Aurora scales back programs for poor while pushing new suburban facility

By JOE MANNING

jmanning@journalsentinel.com

Posted: May 15, 2004

Medical care is pricey here, study confirms Barrett, Ryan warn of business exodus

By JOE MANNING

jmanning@journalsentinel.com

Posted: Aug. 23, 2004

Joy and blues for hospitals Income up at St. Luke's, others; worsens at Sinai, St. Michael

Julie Sneider

After a down year in 2002, several southeastern Wisconsin hospitals logged improved financial performance in 2003 with a select few seeing net incomes jump more than 40 percent, according to financial reports filed with the state.

$56.9 million shortfall
2005 County Budget

Pension and Health Care cost increases are largest part of the budget shortfall for 2005

County Contribution to
GAMP: $14.4 million

2004 GAMP Funding

- State Reimbursement: $32,733,694
- Refunds and Recoveries: $1,280,000
- County Tax Levy: $14,428,897

What Can Be Done?