6. Yes. I ran for a seat in the Wisconsin State Assembly and won. I ran for the position of Milwaukee County Executive and won. The account is still open, but there is no debt left from the last election. As an active campaign committee, “Friends of Scott Walker” has campaign expenses on an ongoing basis before the next election. These expenses are routinely paid by the campaign account each month. I am not personally liable for the expenses.

7. My term of office as the Milwaukee County Executive remains through May 2004. If I am elected to a full term in April of 2004, I will hold office until May of 2008.

8. None.

9. 18. As an elected official, I often give speeches to organizations and prepare columns for local newspapers. Currently, our office does not keep a record of each speech or column.

19. The funding of a light rail transportation system is a fairly controversial local issue. I am identified as being opposed to using local tax funds on the program.

20. No.

21. Even though I hold a non-partisan elected office, the Democratic Party of Wisconsin often seeks to attack my positions in press releases. It is possible they might comment on the appointment, but unlikely since it is not a controversial commission.

22. None.

23. None.

24. It will be an honor to serve for such an honorable President.
